

ROLES IN GROUP DISCUSSION

Vedant Saxena

Agenda for our discussion

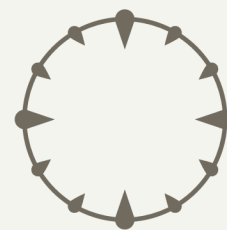

ROLES IN A GROUP DISCUSSION

Indicator or Contributor

Information
Provider

Clarifier or Questioner

Devil's Advocate
or Challenger

Summary and Q&A

INDICATOR ROLE

The Indicator or Contributor engages group members to share their thoughts and ideas, fostering a collaborative environment.

01.

Indicators help in stimulating discussions among members.

02.

They encourage participation by asking open-ended questions.

03.

Indicators also ensure all voices are heard and valued.

INFORMATION TION PROVIDER

Understanding the role of an Information Provider in discussions: supplying relevant data and insights to enhance group decisions.

01.

An Information Provider shares critical data during discussions.

02.

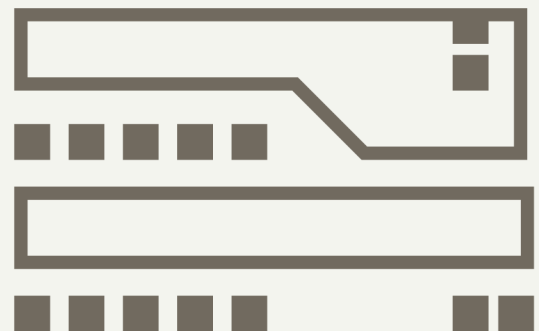

They ensure that all participants have access to pertinent information.

03.

This role helps to foster informed decision-making and robust discussion.

CLARIFIER ROLE

The Clarifier or Questioner ensures all participants understand points discussed and facilitates clarification during group discussions.

01.

They ask questions to promote deeper understanding.

02.

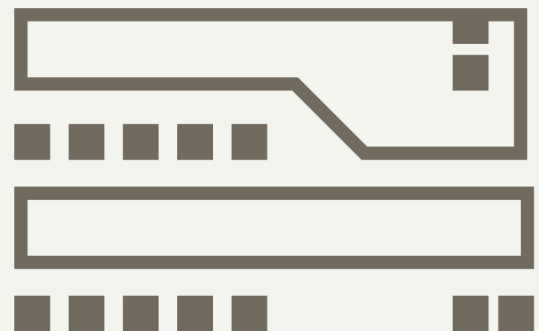

Clarifiers help in summarizing key points for clarity.

03.

This role is vital for effective communication in discussions.

DEVIL'S ADVOCATE

This role is essential in discussions to foster critical thinking and prevent groupthink by challenging assumptions and ideas.

01.

The Devil's Advocate role encourages open debate.

02.

This role helps to identify potential weaknesses in arguments.

03.

Challenging ideas leads to more thorough discussions.

ROLES IN GROUP DISCUSSION

Understanding the key roles in effective discussions enhances collaboration and fosters insights.

Each role is vital for balanced, productive group interactions, leading to comprehensive outcomes.

Thank YOU!